

Sprint Review

Sprint 1 Review: ■ Sprint Review for Sprint 1

Sprint 2 Review: ■ Sprint Review for Sprint 2

Sprint 3 Review: ■ Sprint Review for Sprint 3

The purpose of the Sprint Review is to allow the team and stakeholders to review and evaluate the work completed at the end of each Sprint. The specific purposes include:

1. Showcase Achievements: The team presents the work completed in the current Sprint, usually by demonstrating new features or completed tasks.
2. Gather Feedback: Collect feedback from stakeholders so that the team can make improvements or adjustments in the next Sprint.
3. Discuss Next Steps: Based on the completed work and received feedback, discuss and adjust the Product Backlog to ensure the team's work in the next Sprint is clear and well-directed.
4. Promote Communication: Enhance communication and collaboration within the team and with stakeholders, ensuring everyone has a consistent understanding of the project's progress and the next steps.

In summary, the Sprint Review is an important session that helps the team continuously improve and ensure the product development direction aligns with the needs of users and stakeholders.
